Government, &c. of each State in the Union.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE.

The executive power is vested in a Governor and Council. The Governor is chosen by the people annually. If there is no choice, the Legislature fill the vacancy, from the two highest candidates. The council consists of five persons chosen by the people. The legislature is styled the General Court. Each branch has a negative on the other. The Senate consists of 13 members. Each town containing 150 rateable polls sends one Representative, and every additional 300 polls entitles it to another. The Governor, Counsellors, Senators and Representatives are chosen on the 2d Tuesday of March in every year. The Constitution of N. H. was adopted Feb. 1792.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The executive consists of a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and a council of nine members. The two first are chosen by the people annually. The council is chosen by the legislature out of the 40 returned as senators; and, if they decline, from the mass of the people. The legislature consists of a Senate and House of Representatives, both chosen annually by the people. The Senators are chosen by districts; the Representatives by the towns. Each town having 150 rateable polls sends one, and another for every additional 225 polls. The legislature assemble annually in May and January: and on some special occasions oftener. The Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and Senators are chosen on the first Monday in April annually. The Representatives are chosen annually in May. The Constitution of Massachusetts was adopted March, 1780.

CONNECTICUT.

The Charter of Charles II. in 1662 contains the Constitution of this State. The legislature is composed of a Council and House of Representatives. The council consists of a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and 12 Assistants. The Governor presides, and has a vote, and a casting vote. They are all chosen annually on the 2d Monday in April: the two first directly from the mass of the people; the Assistants from a nomination of 20, which is filled up by the people in the preceding October. The House of Representatives, consisting of 199 members, is chosen twice a year, viz. on the 3d Monday in March, and 3d Monday in September; 80 towns sending each two Representatives, and 39 sending but one each. This government has been in operation more than 170 years.

RHODE-ISLAND.

The Charter of 1663 is the Constitution of this State. The legislature is composed of a Council of twelve, including the Governor and Deputy-Governor, all chosen annually; and a House of Representatives, consisting of 72 deputies from the several towns, chosen twice a year, viz. on the 3d Wednesday in April, and the 4th Tuesday in August.

VERMONT.

The legislative power is vested in a House of Representatives, chosen annually on the 1st Tuesday in September, and to meet on the 2d Thursday of the succeeding October. Each inhabited town has a right to send one Representative to the Assembly. The executive power is vested in a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and twelve Counsellors, chosen annually on the 1st Tuesday in September. The Constitution of Vermont was adopted July 9, 1793.

NEW-YORK.

The legislature is composed of a Senate and House of Representatives. The Senators are chosen by districts, for four years. They are divided by lot into four classes. The seats of the first class are vacated in one year, the second class the second year, &c. so that a fourth part of the Senate are elected annually. Annual elections are on the last Tuesday in April and the two following days. The Representatives are chosen by the several counties annually. A council of revision, composed of the Governor, Chancellor, and the Judges of the Supreme Court, is empowered to revise all bills passed by the two Houses, and to return them to the House where they originated. If this is done, two thirds of both Houses must re-enact them, or they are defeated. If it is not done in ten days from the time a bill is passed, it becomes a law of course.

The executive is composed of a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and Council of Appointment. The Governor is chosen every three years. The Lieutenant-Governor, chosen for the same time, is President of the Senate. The Council of Appointment consists of the Governor, and one Senator from each District, chosen annually by the legislature. It has the appointment of all subordinate officers, executive and judicial.

NEW-JERSEY.

The legislature is composed of a Legislative Council and House of Assembly. The Council is chosen annually, and consists of thirteen members; each county choosing one. The Assembly consists of 35 members, also chosen yearly. The executive is composed of a Governor, annually chosen by a joint ballot of the legislature; a Vice-President, chosen by the Council; and a Privy-Council, consisting of any three members of the Legislative Council. The Governor is President of the Council, Chancellor, Surrogate-General, and Captain-General. Annual elections in October.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The legislative power is vested in a Senate and House of Representatives. The Senators are chosen by districts, and hold their offices four years. One fourth of them are elected annually. The Representatives are chosen annually by the city of Philadelphia, and the respective counties. The legislature meet once a year in December. The executive power is vested in a Governor, who is elected for three years; but cannot be chosen above 9 out of any 12 years.

DELAWARE.

The legislature consists of a Senate and House of Representatives. The Representative are chosen annually on the 1st Tuesday in October, and by counties. The Senators are chosen triennially, and by counties. One third of the Senators go out annually. The Assembly meet in January. The Governor is chosen by the freemen triennially, and can hold the office only three, out of any term of six years. The Speaker of the Senate, in case of the absence, death, or resignation of the Governor, acts in his room.

Delaware had a smaller population than either of the States at each national enumeration. In 1810, it contained 72,674 inhabitants. Its constitution was adopted in June, 1792.

MARYLAND.

The legislature consists of a Senate and House of Delegates. The Senate is chosen by Electors, who are elected by the freemen, (on the first Monday in Sept.) every fifth year, two from a county, and one from each of the cities of Annapolis and Baltimore. The Electors meet at Annapolis a fortnight after they are chosen, and elect by ballot, 9 Senators from the western shore, and 6 from the eastern, who hold their station five years. The delegates are chosen annually on the first Monday in October. The Assembly meets annually on the first Monday in November. The Governor, and an executive council of five persons, are chosen annually, on the second Monday in November, by a joint ballot of both Houses.

VIRGINIA.

The legislature is composed of a Senate and House of Representatives. The Senate consists of 24 members, chosen for four years, by districts. One fourth of the Senate goes out yearly. The Representatives are chosen annually, two from each county, and one from several cities and burroughs each. The Governor is chosen annually by joint ballot of both Houses, and can hold the office but 3 years in 7. He has a Privy Council of 8 members, chosen by joint ballot of both Houses. The two Houses remove two of its members every 3 years, and appoint two new ones. The Council chooses its President, who in case of the death, resignation, or absence of the Governor, acts in his stead.

NORTH-CAROLINA.

The legislative power is vested in a Senate, and House of Commons. The Senators are chosen annually, one from each county. The members of the House of Commons are chosen annually, two from each county, and one from each of six towns. The Governor is chosen annually by a joint ballot of both Houses; and is eligible 3 years in six. The Executive Council consists of 7 persons chosen annually, by a joint ballot of the two Houses. Raleigh is the seat of government. The Constitution of this State was adopted Dec. 18, 1776.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The legislature consists of a Senate and House of Representatives. The Senate consists of 43 members chosen every 4 years by districts. Half of the Senators are chosen every 2 years. The Representatives are chosen every 2 years by districts. The Governor and Lieutenant-Governor are chosen biennially, by a joint ballot of both houses. Elections take place on the 2d Monday in October, and the day following; and the legislature meets annually on the 4th Monday in November. The Constitution was adopted June 3, 1790.

GEORGIA.

The legislature consists of a Senate and House of Representatives. The Senators are chosen annually by counties, one from each. The Representatives are chosen annually by counties; each sending at least one, and none more than four. The Assembly meets yearly on the 2d Tuesday in January. The Governor is chosen for two years, by the General Assembly.

KENTUCKY.

The legislative power is vested in a Senate and House of Representatives. The Senators are chosen by districts, and hold their seats four years. One fourth are re-chosen annually. Their number is limited to 38. The Representatives are chosen annually on the first Monday of August, chiefly by counties, and in a few instances by towns. Their number cannot exceed 100. The Assembly convenes on the first Monday in November. The Governor is chosen by the people once in four years, and is ineligible the succeeding seven. The Lieutenant-Governor is chosen for the same period, and in the same manner, and is President of the Senate. The Constitution of this State was adopted Aug. 17, 1799.

TENNESSEE.

This State is divided into five districts, and these into 38 counties. Its Constitution was adopted Feb. 6, 1796. The legislative authority is vested in a Senate and House of Representatives. The election for Governor and members of both Houses is biennial, on the first Thursday in August and the day succeeding; and the meeting of the General Assembly is on the 3d Monday of September. The Governor is vested with the executive power.

OHIO.

The legislative authority is vested in a Senate, chosen biennially, and a House of Representatives, chosen annually; both branches by the people. Annual elections are on the 2d Tuesday in October. The Senators are divided into two classes by lot; the seats of the first class to be vacated at the expiration of one year; of the second at the expiration of the second year; so that one half are to be chosen annually. The executive power is vested in a Governor, to be chosen biennially, by the people.

LOUISIANA.

This State is entitled to send two members to the Senate, and one member to the House of Representatives of the United States. Until a new census, it will of course choose three Electors of President and Vice-President. In 1810, the city, suburbs, and precincts of New-Orleans contained 24,552 inhabitants; of whom 13,728 are whites, and 10,824 are slaves.

MISSISSIPPI.

In November, 1812, this Territory was incorporated into a State; and included within its limits a part of West-Florida, claimed as originally constituting a portion of Louisiana, and as embraced in the purchase of that Territory. Mississippi Territory originally contained about 90,000 square miles; 330 miles in length from east to west, and 278 in breadth. The representation of this State in Congress is the same as that of Louisiana.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Is a square with a side of ten miles, and of course contains 100 square miles. It lies on both sides the Potomac, and includes the towns of Washington, Georgetown and Alexandria. It is divided into two counties; the county of Washington on the north side of the Potomac; and the county of Alexandria on the south side. In the former, the laws of Maryland are continued in force; in the latter, those of Virginia. Congress, however, makes what laws it pleases for both.

Washington city is built on the Maryland side of the Potomac, on a point of land between what is called the Eastern branch and the Potomac. Its plan as laid out, extends nearly four miles up each of those rivers. The Eastern Branch forms a safe and commodious harbour, being sufficiently deep for the largest ships, for about four miles above its mouth, while the channel lies close along the bank adjoining the city, and affords a large and convenient harbour. The capitol is situated on a pleasant eminence, commanding a view of every part of the city, and of a considerable portion of the country around. Such streets as lead immediately to public places are from 130 to 160 feet wide ; others from 90 to 110. This city became the permanent seat of the National Government in 1800.

INDIANA TERRITORY,

Containing 24,520 inhabitants, is divided into four counties, and 27 townships. Its average length is about 270 miles, and its average breadth about 130. Number of square miles, 35,000. The officers of this government are appointed by the President of the U. States. Vincennes is the capital and the seat of government, and is also the centre of commerce.

MICHIGAN TERRITORY.

This Territory is divided into four districts, viz.—Erie, Detroit, Huron, and Michilimakinak. Its greatest length from South-east to North-west, is 500 miles ; from North-east to South-west it is 300. The number of square miles, both of land and water, is estimated at 150,000. The legislative power is vested in a Governor and a Supreme Court, composed of three Judges, all appointed by the President of the United States. The executive power is vested in the Governor, and the judicial in the three Judges, and such civil magistrates in the various districts as the Governor shall appoint.

ILLINOIS TERRITORY.

This is the western half of what was formerly called the Territory N. W. of the Ohio, and embraces the whole of it, except what is included in the State of Ohio, and the Territories of Michigan and Indiana. The whole tract contains about 200,000 square miles. It was a part of the Indiana Territory till 1809, when it was erected into a separate government. Population in 1810, was 12,282 inhabitants.

The Territory originally included in Louisiana, was estimated to contain nearly a million of square miles ; as large an extent of country as the whole of the residue of the United States. In 1810, it contained 97,401 inhabitants.

“The city of Moscow, in Russia, burnt by its former inhabitants when attacked by Bonaparte, is 26 miles in circumference, and, according to the Russian academy, contained 12,548 houses, and 300,000 inhabitants. Moscow contained, exclusive of chapels, 484 public churches, 199 of white-washed brick, and 285 of wood painted of a red colour. These churches had numerous bells, some immensely large; one of 128 000 lbs. another of 288,000 lbs. and another of 432,000 lbs. Moscow contained a university, a monastery, and a foundling hospital. The religion of Russia is that of the Greek church.”

UNIVERSITY AT CAMBRIDGE, OR HARVARD COLLEGE.

The General Court of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay, in Sept. 1636, appropriated £100 for a School or College within the Government; and appointed and named six Magistrates, and six Elders to order the College. In 1637, they voted that the College should be erected at Newtown. In the year following, they changed the name of Newtown to Cambridge, and in March, 1638—9 enacted that the College to be built at Cambridge, should be called Harvard College, in honour of the Rev. John Harvard, who had bequeathed to it £779:17:2, with his library. In the year 1642, the General Court established the Board of Overseers, to consist of the Governor, Deputy-Governor, for the time being, all the Magistrates of the jurisdiction, with the teaching Elders of the six next adjoining towns; who were invested with power to make statutes and laws for the government of the College, and to dispose and manage its funds.

In May, 1650, the Charter of the Corporation was granted; said Corporation to consist of a President, five Fellows and a Treasurer, styled the President and Fellows of Harvard College. By this Charter, the Corporation procuring the presence of the Overseers, and by their counsel and consent, have power to fill vacancies in their own body. They are authorised to receive and hold real estate, not exceeding the value of £500 pr. ann. and any goods and sums of money whatsoever; and to make conclusive bargains for lands and tenements, &c. They are to choose and remove officers, and make orders and by-laws for the carrying on the work of the College; provided the said orders be allowed by the Overseers. By an act of the Court in 1657, called an Appendix to the Charter, the acts of the President and Fellows have immediate force and effect; they being responsible for the same to the Overseers. The Constitution of the Commonwealth recognizes and confirms the powers of the Corporation and Overseers of Harvard College or the University in Cambridge, pointing out the successors to the former Overseers, and reserving to the Legislature of the State such control over the government of the College, as was possessed by the Legislature of the late Province.

The Convention of the Congregational Ministers in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

IS a voluntary Association, embracing all the Congregational Clergy of the Commonwealth, but vested with no particular authority or control over the Churches.

Their meeting is holden in Boston, in the afternoon of the last Wednesday in May, or day of Election annually; and the following day at eleven, A.M. after transacting the usual business of the Convention, a sermon is delivered in publick before them, and a collection made for the charitable purpose of relieving the indigent widows of Congregational Clergymen.

Difficulties having often arisen in determining, what widows are the proper objects of the charity of this Convention, it was voted, June 1, 1815,—That a standing Committee of 50 be appointed, 5 of whom shall be chosen centrally ; and the remainder in different parts of the State. The five shall act as a Reporting Committee, to receive from the other members of the Committee applications and statements of facts in behalf of persons, who may be subjects of the charity of the Convention, and, having considered the same, shall judge of the persons to be relieved, and the proportion to be given to each, and make report to the Convention, on the 1st day of their meeting, annually ; further, that the names of said Committee shall be annually published in the Massachusetts Register.

The Convention earnestly recommend to all young gentlemen who design to devote themselves to the work of the ministry, to spend that portion of time in the study of divinity which learned and judicious advisers shall think necessary to qualify them for public teachers.

The General Association in Massachusetts.

THIS body was organized in June, 1805. In 1814, it consisted of Delegates from 12 Associations in Massachusetts Proper. Its members "admit, as articles of faith, the doctrines of Christianity, as they are generally expressed in the Assembly's Shorter Catechism," and consider these doctrines, which have been generally embraced by the Churches of New-England, as the "basis of their Union." This body wholly disclaims ecclesiastical power or authority over the Churches, or the opinions of individuals. Their essential objects, as expressed in their Constitution, are "to promote brotherly intercourse and harmony, and their mutual animation, assistance and usefulness as ministers of Christ; to obtain religious information relative to the state of their particular churches, and of the general state of the Christian Church in this country and throughout the Christian world; and to co-operate with other similar institutions in the most eligible measures for building up the cause of truth and holiness."

This Association sends Delegates to, and receives Delegates from, the following ecclesiastical bodies, viz. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. The General Associations of Connecticut and New-Hampshire. And the General Convention of Vermont.

Annual meetings last Wednesdays in June.

Their meeting in June 1816, is to be holden at Leicester, at the house of Rev. John Nelson.

Rev. ENOCH HALE, of West-Hampton, is the standing Scribe of this Association.

Summary of the Method of Treatment to be used with Persons apparently dead from Drowning, &c.

The RESUSCITATIVE PROCESS, recommended by the Humane Society.

CONVEY the person to the nearest convenient house with his head raised; strip and dry him as quick as possible; clean the mouth and nostrils from froth and mud. If a child, let him be placed between two persons naked, in a hot bed. If an adult, lay him on a hot blanket or bed, and in cold weather, near a fire; in warm weather the air should be freely admitted into the room. The body is next to be gently rubbed with warm woolen cloths, sprinkled with spirits, if at hand, otherwise dry. A heated warming-pan may be now lightly moved over the back, properly covered with a blanket; and the body, if of a child, is to be gently shook every few minutes. Whilst these means are using, let a clyster of warm water, with as much common salt as it will dissolve, be thrown into the bowels. Bathe the breast with hot rum; and persist in the use of these means for several hours. If no signs of life should then appear, let the body be kept warm several hours longer, with hot bricks, or vessels of hot water, applied to the palms of the hands and soles of the feet; and this for a longer or shorter time, as the circumstances of the case may dictate.

The too customary method of rolling on a barrel, suspending by the feet, and every violent mode of agitation, particularly in removing the body from the water, should be most carefully avoided.

To restore breathing, introduce the pipe of a bellows (when no apparatus is at hand) into one of the nostrils, the other and mouth being closed; inflate the lungs, until the breast is a little raised; mouth and nostrils must then be let free. Repeat this process until life appear.

Electricity is recommended to be early employed by judicious practitioners.

General Observations.—Resuscitation.

On the dawn or first indication of returning life, the prudent practitioner will resign the office of Art to Nature. It is evident that Art has contributed her share, by enabling Nature to struggle with the immediate cause of oppression. It is in fact this judicious blending of Nature with Art that gives to the latter all its efficacy.

On signs of returning life.

A tea-spoonful of warm water may be given; and if swallowing be returned, warm wine or diluted brandy. The patients must be laid in a warm bed, and if disposed to sleep, they will generally awake perfectly restored.

The plans above recommended are to be used three or four hours. It is an absurd and vulgar opinion, to suppose persons irrecoverable, because life does not soon make its appearance.

☞ Bleeding never to be employed, unless by the direction of a physician.

The object of this Association is to obtain a fund, by the voluntary subscriptions of the citizens of Massachusetts, to erect in the town of Boston, a Monument in Memory of Gen. GEORGE WASHINGTON. The subscription books had been opened a few weeks when the declaration of war against Great-Britain took place, and the Trustees thought it best to postpone farther applications, until the restoration of peace.

Peace being now happily restored to our beloved country, arrangements are making to open the Subscription books again.

Upwards of eight thousand dollars were collected, and the amount has been loaned by the Treasurer, on good security and interest.

Note by the Publishers of the Register.

Those Gentlemen, in different parts of the State, who have obligingly forwarded information, and corrections for the Register, are respectfully tendered our cordial thanks. Some of their communications arrived at so late a period, as not to be of so much benefit as they designed. Their future favours are solicited in September, which will enable the Publishers to issue the Register more seasonably.

Several communications are unavoidably omitted.

Treaty with Great-Britain.

JAMES MADISON,

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

To all and singular to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting.

WHEREAS a Convention between the United States of America and His Britannic Majesty, to regulate the Commerce between the Territories of the United States and of His Britannic Majesty, was signed at London, on the third day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, by Plenipotentiaries respectively appointed for that purpose, which Convention is in the words following, to wit :

A CONVENTION

To Regulate the Commerce between the Territories of the United States and of His Britannic Majesty.

THE United States of America and His Britannic Majesty being desirous by a Convention to regulate the Commerce and Navigation between their respective Countries, Territories, and People, in such a manner as to render the same reciprocally beneficial and satisfactory, have respectively named Plenipotentiaries and given them full powers to treat of and conclude such Convention, that is to say, the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate thereof, hath appointed for their Plenipotentiaries, John Quincy Adams, Henry Clay and Albert Gallatin, Citizens of the United States; and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on behalf of His Majesty, has named for his Plenipotentiaries the Right Honourable Frederick John Robinson, Vice-President of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations, Joint Paymaster of His Majesty's forces, and a Member of the Imperial Parliament, Henry Goulburn, Esq. a Member of the Imperial Parliament, and Under Secretary of State, and William Adams, Esq. Doctor of Civil Laws; and the said Plenipotentiaries having mutually produced and shewn their full powers, and exchanged copies of the same, have agreed on and concluded the following articles, videlicet:

ARTICLE FIRST.

There shall be between the Territories of the United States of America and all the Territories of His Britannic Majesty in Europe, a reciprocal liberty of Commerce. The inhabitants of the two countries respectively shall have liberty freely and securely to come with their ships and cargoes to all such places, ports, and rivers in the Territories aforesaid to which other foreigners are permitted to come, to enter into the same and to remain and reside in any parts of the said Territories respectively, also to hire and occupy houses and warehouses for the purposes of their commerce; and generally the merchants and traders of each nation respectively shall enjoy the most complete protection and security for their commerce, but subject always to the Laws and Statutes of the two countries respectively.

ARTICLE SECOND.

No higher or other duties shall be imposed on the importation into the United States of any articles the growth, produce or manufacture of His Britannic Majesty's Territories in Europe, and no higher or other duties shall be imposed on the importation into the Territories of His Britannic Majesty in Europe, of any articles the growth, produce or manufacture of the United States, than are or shall be payable on the like articles being the growth, produce or manufacture of any other foreign country, nor shall any higher or other duties, or charges be imposed in either of the two countries, on the exportation of any articles to the United States, or to His Britannic Majesty's Territories in Europe, respectively, than such as are payable on the exportation of the like articles to any other foreign country, nor shall any prohibition be imposed on the exportation or importation of any articles, the growth, produce or manufacture of the United States, or of his Britannic Majesty's Territories in Europe, to or from the said Territories of His Britannic Majesty in Europe, or to or from the said United States, which shall not equally extend to all other nations.

No higher or other duties or charges shall be imposed in any of the ports of the United States on British vessels, than those payable in the same ports by vessels of the United States; nor in the ports of any of His Britannic Majesty's Territories in Europe on the vessels of the United States then shall be payable in the same ports on British vessels.

The same duties shall be paid on the importation into the United States of any articles, the growth, produce or manufacture of His Britannic Majesty's Territories in Europe, whether such importation shall be in vessels of the United States or in British vessels, and the same duties shall be paid on the importation into the ports of any of His Britannic Majesty's Territories in Europe of any article the growth, produce or manufacture of the United States, whether such importation shall be in British vessels or in vessels of the United States.

The same duties shall be paid and the same bounties allowed on the exportation of any article, the growth, produce or manufacture of His Britannic Majesty's Territories in Europe to the United States, whether such exportation shall be in vessels of the United States, or in British vessels; and the same duties shall be paid and the same bounties allowed, on the exportation of any articles, the growth, produce or manufacture of the United States to His Britannic Majesty's Territories in Europe, whether such exportation shall be in British vessels, or in vessels of the United States.

It is further agreed, that in all cases where drawbacks are or may be allowed, upon the re-exportation of any goods, the growth, produce or manufacture of either country, respectively, the amount of the said drawbacks shall be the same, whether the said goods shall have been originally imported in a British or American vessel; but when such re-exportation shall take place from the United States in a British vessel, or from the Territories of His Britannic Majesty in Europe in an American vessel, to any other foreign nation, the two contracting parties reserve to themselves, respectively, the right of regulating or diminishing, in such case, the amount of the said drawback.

The intercourse between the United States and His Britannic Majesty's possessions in the West-Indies, and on the continent of North-America, shall not be affected by any of the provisions of this article, but each party shall remain in the complete possession of its rights, with respect to such an intercourse, ARTICLE THIRD.

His Britannic Majesty agrees that the vessels of the United States of America shall be admitted, and hospitably received at the principal settlements of the British dominions in the East-Indies, videlicet, Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, and Prince of Wales' Island, and that the citizens of the said United States may freely carry on trade between the said principal settlements and the said United States, in all articles of which the importation and exportation, respectively, to and from the said Territories, shall not be entirely prohibited: Provided only, that it shall not be lawful for them in any time of war, between the British government and any state or power whatever, to export from the said Territories, without the special permission of the British government, any military stores, or naval stores, or rice. The citizens of the United States shall pay for their vessels, when admitted, no higher or other duty or charge than shall be payable on the vessels of the most favored European nations, and they shall pay no higher or other duties or charges on the importation or exportation of the cargoes of the said vessels, than shall be payable on the same articles when imported or exported in the vessels of the most favored European nations.

But it is expressly agreed, that the vessels of the United States shall not carry any articles from the said principal settlements to any port or place, except to some port or place in the United States of America, where the same shall be unladen.

It is also understood, that the permission granted by this article, is not to extend to allow the vessels of the United States to carry on any part of the coasting trade of the said British Territories, but the vessels of the United States having, in the first instance, proceeded to one of the said principal settlements of the British dominions in the East-Indies, and then going with their original cargoes, or part thereof, from one of the said principal settlements to another, shall not be considered as carrying on the coasting trade. The vessels of the United States may also touch for refreshment, but not for commerce, in the course of their voyage to or from the British Territories in India, or to or from the dominions of the Emperor of China, at the Cape of Good-Hope, the Island of St. Helena, or such other places as may be in the possession of Great-Britain, in the African or Indian seas, it being well understood that in all that regards this article, the citizens of the United States shall be subject, in all respects, to the laws and regulations of the British government, from time to time established.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

It shall be free, for each of the two contracting parties, respectively to appoint Consuls, for the protection of trade, to reside in the dominions and territories of the other party, but before any Consul shall act as such, he shall in the usual form be approved and admitted by the government to which he is sent, and it is hereby declared that in case of illegal or improper conduct towards the laws or government of the country to which he is sent, such Consul may either be punished according to law, if the laws will reach the case, or be sent back, the offended government assigning to the other the reasons for the same.

It is hereby declared that either of the contracting parties, may except from the residence of Consuls, such particular places as such party shall judge fit to be so excepted.

ARTICLE FIFTH.

This Convention, when the same shall have been duly ratified by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of their Senate, and by His Britannic Majesty, and the respective ratifications mutually exchanged, shall be binding and obligatory on the said United States and His Majesty for four years from the date of its signature, and the ratifications shall be exchanged in six months from this time, or sooner if possible.

Done at London, this third day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

(L.S.) ALBERT GALLATIN,

NOW THEREFORE, be it known, that I, JAMES MADISON, President of the United States of America, having seen, and considered, the foregoing Convention, have, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, accepted, ratified, and confirmed the same, and every clause and article thereof, subject to the exception, contained in a Declaration, made by the authority of His Britannic Majesty, on the 24th day of November last, a copy of which Declaration is hereunto annexed.

IN TESTIMONY Whereof, I have caused the Seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed, and have signed the same with my hand. Done at the City of Washington, this twenty-second day of December, A.D. one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and of the Independence of the United States, the fortieth.

JAMES MADISON.

By the President.

JAMES MUNROE,
Secretary of State.

DECLARATION.

The undersigned, His Britannic Majesty's Charge d'Affairs in the United States of America, is commanded by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to explain and declare, upon the exchange of the ratifications of the Convention concluded at London on the 3d of July, of the present year, for regulating the Commerce and Navigation between the two countries, that in consequence of events which have happened in Europe, subsequent to the signature of the Convention aforesaid, it has been deemed expedient and determined, in conjunction with the Allied Sovereigns, that St. Helena shall be the place allotted for the future residence of General Napoleon Bonaparte, under such regulations as may be necessary for the perfect security of his person, and it has been resolved, for that purpose, that all ships and vessels whatever, as well British ships and vessels as others, excepting only ships belonging to the East-India Company, shall be excluded from all communication with or approach to that Island.

It has therefore become impossible to comply with so much of the third article of the Treaty as relates to the liberty of touching for refreshment at the Island of St. Helena, and the ratifications of the said Treaty will be exchanged under the explicit declaration and understanding that the vessels of the United States cannot be allowed to touch at, or hold any communication whatever with the said Island, so long as the said Island shall continue to be the place of residence of the said Napoleon Bonaparte. (Signed)

ANTHONY ST. JNO. BAKER.
